

Rosenwald Schools Documented in the Files of the North Carolina State Historic Preservation Office
February 2017

This list initially was compiled by intern Kate Phillips in the summer of 2002 by culling NC HPO survey files in Raleigh. Because Ms. Phillips was not able to travel to Asheville, where files on the 25 western counties are stored, this list currently includes few western schools. Staff plans to review the western files as soon as time and funding permit. Beginning in November 2003, HPO staff has expanded the list with entries for files compiled with material submitted after August 2002, when the HPO and the N. C. Rosenwald Schools Community Project began sponsoring a statewide survey by volunteers dedicated to identifying North Carolina's Rosenwald schools. Many of the pre-existing files have been augmented by survey volunteers, while other post-August 2002 files were created by staff, consultants, or interested citizens independent of the statewide Rosenwald schools survey.

This list is updated periodically as additional information is received. Information on Rosenwald schools, including corrections to this list, should be submitted to Claudia Brown, N. C. State Historic Preservation Office, 4617 Mail Service Station, Raleigh, NC 27699-4617; claudia.brown@ncdcr.gov.

The following codes apply throughout:

NR = Listed in the National Register of Historic Places

SL = On North Carolina National Register Study List

D = Destroyed

R = Ruinous

Note: The number following the county name indicates the number of Rosenwald-funded schools and associated buildings that were erected in that county.
